

AL HALL'S LIFE A VARIED ONE

BURLESQUE STAR
HERE THIS WEEK

Burlesque Star Ran Away
With Circus at Age
Of Nine.

Al K. Hall, eccentric comedian and burlesque star, who is appearing with the "Sporting Widows" show at the Gayety Theater this week, has had what the novelty stars would call a "checked career." He was born in Paris, but at the age of 5 was brought to Canada by his parents. They lived in Toronto, and there little Al went to school. One day a circus came to town, and he was then about 9 years old, and he was on the lot early in the morning to watch the white tops go up. But the ambition Al had was more than merely to see the circus. Nothing short of becoming a member of the troupe would satisfy him. The result was that when the circus left Al K. Hall left with it.

AL K. HALL.

That was the end of his circus career.

Coming to the Theaters

CRANDALL'S KNICKERBOCKER.

Norma Talmadge will be the pictured star of the bill at Crandall's Knickerbocker Theater on Thursday and Friday of the current week in "The Woman Gives." The foremost supplementary feature of the bill will be Goldwyn-Bray's "Enchanted Gardens." On Saturday only Constancia Talmadge will succeed her sister in the stellar position on the program as pictured star of First National's "In Search of a Sinner." Also announced for this day only are a new animated cartoon "starring" Mutt and Jeff and the Hallmark Boys in "Back on the Farm." Next week will bring to the Knickerbocker a rare list of special productions.

STRAND.

Next week at the Strand Theater, beginning Monday, will be marked by what is expected to be one of the finest bills in both vaudeville and pictures to be presented in Washington this summer. It is headed by "The Pearl of Hawaii," Jonia and her Hawaiian troupe of musicians and dancers in a scenic and spectacular tropical serenade. McLean Gates and Company, in a splendid comedy hit entitled "Stateroom 13; Pique and Fellowes, a pair of versatile entertainers, in a variety of eccentric duets. Darryl and Brown, in their musical flirtation "Black Home," and popular Jimmy Lyons, better known as the Hebrew soldier-statesman, make up the remainder of the vaudeville attractions. William Farnum will bring to the Knickerbocker a rare list of special productions.

CRANDALL'S METROPOLITAN.

"Marooned Hearts," the first individual starring vehicle for Conway Tearle, and one of the most artistically produced pictures of the year, will continue the chief feature of the excellent bill at Crandall's Metropolitan Theater throughout the remaining days of the current week. Supplementing this splendid drama is the vaudeville duo of "Run 'Em Ragged." Beginning next Sunday and continuing through the week, will be shown for the first time in Washington the most recent stellar vehicle for Alice Lake, "The Mistletoe."

SHUBERT-GARRICK.

Another phase of the versatility of the Garrick Players will be unfolded before the public next Sunday night, when the popular F Street organization begins a week's engagement of "Oh, Boy," the most popular musical show of the last ten years. This is the first musical show Washington has seen in some time, and advances indicate a banner week. For this engagement several musical comedy favorites are being imported from New York. The production will be as nearly as possible duplicate of that of the original at the Princess Theater in New York. They will be the usual matinees on Thursday and Saturday.

GREAT FALLS PARK.

As the summer advances the ideal resort attractions of historic, picturesque Great Falls Park appeal to increasing numbers, who find delight in a day's outing there among quiet shade trees, where outdoor amusements are provided and free dancing and other outdoor amusements are provided by the Ladies' Great Falls Orchestra are featured. On Saturday the War Risk Bureau will have its annual outing here.

STEAMER ST. JOHNS.

The steamer St. Johns will be making a trip to Colonial Beach, where delightful salt-water bathing is enjoyed by the pleasure seekers and vacationists. Fishing, crabbing, dancing and other outdoor amusements are to be found at this popular resort. The steamer St. Johns makes four trips weekly to Colonial Beach, and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings carries pleasure seekers on the delightful 40-mile moonlight trip.

LOEW'S PALACE.

As its featured attraction for the full week, starting next Sunday afternoon, Loew's Palace Theater will offer Ethel Clayton in "Crooked Streets," the Paramount-Artcraft cinema adaptation of Samuel Merwin's story of the Orient, "Dinner at Eight." As an added attraction of the program, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Dellavon will be seen in their latest comedy, "Never Again."

MARSHALL HALL.

The steamer Charles Macalester is making the usual daily trips from Seventh Street Wharf at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 6:30 p. m., stopping at Alexandria each trip. The steamer stops at Mount Vernon on the 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. daily trips, an extra return trip from Marshall Hall at 11 p. m. on Wednesdays is also on the schedule.

GAYETY.

"Folly Town," the James E. Cooper burlesque attraction, which was selected for the last summer's run in New York, comes to the Gayety Theater next week direct from its Broadway engagement. Three comedians are featured—Ous Pay, Johnnie Walker and Lester Dorr—with Franz-Marie Texas in the prima donna role. Vaudeville numbers will be presented by the California Trio, Lillian Isabella, and the Tennessee Ten, the latter being composed of clever colored entertainers.

CHEVY CHASE LAKE.

The lakeside dancing pavilions at Chevy Chase Lake have been the scene of merriment and dance every evening during the summer. Record-breaking crowds attested to the lake's old reputation as Washington's favorite summer dancing rendezvous. Dance music of the poplious type is furnished nightly by Mayer Davis' Orchestra.

CRANDALL'S.

For the last three days of the current week, beginning today, Crandall's Theater will offer one of the most interesting double-feature bills ever arranged. The foremost feature will be "Crooked Straight," one of Charles Ray's most diverting comedy-dramas. Extra added comedy attraction Harold Lloyd will be screened in the funniest of his two-reel de luxe farces, "High and Dry." Additional short reel subjects and pipe-organ recitals and accompaniment will complete the bill. Beginning next Sunday and remaining the major feature of the bill through Tuesday will be shown "The Prey," starring Alice Joyce.

LOEW'S COLUMBIA.

The attraction for Loew's Columbia Theater for the final three days of this week, beginning this morning, will be Madge Kennedy, the famous stage star of "Fair and Warmer," in a photoplay adaptation of the Broadway hit, "The Romantic Comedy." "Dollars and Sense," the first four days of next week, beginning Sunday, the feature attraction will be Bryant Washburn in George Bixby's extra added comedy success, "What Happened to Jones."

CHESEAPEAKE BEACH.

Hot weather has no terrors for excursionists at Chesapeake Beach, the nearby Maryland salt-water resort. Cool bay breezes constantly fan the long boardwalk and the numerous amusement houses that line it. The over-the-water dancing pavilion is open toward the bay and always is cool and inviting. Bert Sausman's wild orchestra plays snappy music and dancing al fresco is a delight. Crabbing, boating and salt-water bathing are a few of the attractions.

B. F. KEITH'S.

Next week at B. F. Keith's the opera "Puritana" and the burlesque comedian, Charles "Chic" Sale, will compete for attraction. "Puritana" has a large cast, the prima donna being Florence Bernerford and another prominent member, Madge North, well known here. Other numbers announced are Lydia Barry, lyrical chanteuse; Conlin and Glass, in "The Four Seasons and the Four Reasons," the Ed Janna Revue, with Carmen Rooker, the Southern sisters and Ben Macomber; McCarty and Payne, in "Waiting for Someone," Russell and Devitt, the "acrobats"; Rudinoff, the smoke painter and whistler; "Topics of the Day" and Kingmakers. Next Sunday at 3 and 8:15 p. m. the bill will offer Marie Nordstrom, "A Trip to Hildland," and the other attractions of the current week.

MOORE'S RIALTO.

The answer of a strong-minded business man when he is told that his love has been betrayed by an unprincipled society woman is a vital factor in "The Beauty Market" in which Katharine Macdonald is the featured star of Moore's Rialto the remainder of the current week. Beginning Sunday and all week, the feature will be Marshall Neilan's latest production, "Go and Get It," dealing with a theory of mental phenomenon that is declared to be sure to electrify the most blasé audience.

NATIONAL.

For the week beginning Monday the National announces as its attraction George M. Cohan's smashingly successful "Genius and the Crowd," with a brilliant cast of fifty. Cohan has chosen a company of capable artists, including George Renavent, Marion Oakley, Frank Otto, William Keener, Marie Peck, Fuller Mellich, Leonard Ottlinger, Katharine Stewart, Ralph Soule, H. Cooper Cliffe, Mariam Eley, Vera Fuller Mellich, Rudi Trelease and others.

Folly Theater.

"The Joy Riders," a medley of burlesque, comedy, song and dance, remains at the Folly Theater, Pennsylvania avenue and Ninth street for the balance of the week. Billy Mossey has gained a big following in Washington, and is ably seconded by Miss Billy Kimes, a favorite and clever comedienne.

CHILD AT PLAY WOUNDS COMRADE WITH GUN

Pleasant View, Va., Aug. 18.—Arthur Spencer, aged 11, is thought to be dying from a wound inflicted by his cousin, Adam Ash, aged 14, who was playing with a shotgun which he thought was not loaded. The charge entered the boy's back.

Want Special Session To Change Rabbit Laws

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 18.—Owing to an omission in the present game laws, through an error made in transferring changes made at the last special session, which forbids the shooting of rabbits at any season, efforts are being made to call a special session of that body for one day for the purpose of making a correction.
